

Change of Name Request Form.

INSTRUCTIONS

Please read the instructions below, then complete all information on the application.

You must obtain new primary identification document/s (ID) e.g. Australian driver's licence, with your updated name before submitting this form. Once you've obtained your new ID, we can update your name in our system.

To submit this request, you must take this completed form, your ID documents and supporting documents (if required) to any Australia Post outlet for processing.

If you are changing your name due to marriage, separation or divorce you only need to provide your updated ID documents.

If you have changed your name by registering the name change with an Australian state government, you must present the original (or a certified copy) of a Change of Name Certificate, or a Certificate issued by Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

All sections of this form need to be completed.

Any documents that are written in a language that is not English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

SECTION 1: Identification Document Checklist

Standard identity check – one of the options below:

- One primary photographic identification document; OR
- One primary non-photographic identification document AND one secondary identification document.

Note:

1. If any of the identity documents are written in a language other than English, they must be provided with an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.
2. The individual ID documents must be original (if in person) or certified as a true copy by a NAB approved certifier e.g. Justice of the Peace, police officer or legal practitioner.
